

2008 Annual Report on Adequate Yearly Progress

Each year, as a requirement under the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Law, states must report on the “Adequate Yearly Progress” of each school. The Christina School District presents this report as distributed from the Department of Education illustrating where each school falls under the NCLB headings of Superior, Commendable, Academic Progress, Academic Review, and Academic Watch. Each school is detailed below:

Superior Schools

Brader Elementary	Jones Elementary	McVey Elementary
Brennan School	Keene Elementary	Smith Elementary
Brookside Elementary	Leasure Elementary	West Park Place Elementary
Downes Elementary	Maclary Elementary	Wilson Elementary
Gallaher Elementary	Marshall Elementary

Commendable Schools

Elbert-Palmer Elementary

Academic Review Schools

Stubbs Intermediate Delaware School for the Deaf

Schools Under Improvement

All of the schools identified as under improvement are currently in the process of revising their school improvement plan to focus on areas of need. Schools are required to involve parents in developing the revised plan. These schools will receive School Improvement Seed Money to support planning and supplement instructional resources.
